

Laughton All Saints' News Update

We Are On Twitter!

Find us on our school website www.laughtonallsaintscofe.abportals.com where Twitter is embedded in the homepage. Our login is LaughtonCofE. We intend to use Twitter in two ways. Firstly to keep you updated with news and information as an addition to our letters and text messaging service. This will be invaluable for exceptional school closures to keep as wide an audience as possible informed.

In addition, we will regularly let you know about the children's learning and post photographs of events. We have decided that we will not show children's faces clearly in these photographs as Twitter is a public access website. We will continue to abide by your wishes in the use of photographs for other reasons as stated on the consent form that you completed when your child started school.

Please note: We cannot be held responsible for the content of our followers on Twitter.

Grammar Books For Sale

Several parents have asked us to order these grammar books to help them support their children with their learning, bearing in mind the increased rigour of the new grammar curriculum.

They are very clear texts and easy to understand. We will be ordering these books, priced at £4.00 each, next month. If you would like to browse a copy please let Mrs Hague know. If you would like to order one, please let Mrs Hague have your order money by 29 April.
